Elections BC must receive your completed vote-by-mail package by 8:00 p.m. (Pacific time) on Saturday, October 24, 2020. Make sure to mail it early enough for Canada Post to deliver it by the deadline.

You can also return your voting package in person at any drop-off location. Find a list of locations at elections.bc.ca.

If you need help completing your vote-by-mail package, contact us:
elections.bc.ca | 1-800-661-8683
Voter registration

If you are not registered or if your registration information needs to be updated, this package includes a Vote-by-Mail ID Requirements sheet.

If this sheet is not included, then your registration information is current and no additional materials are required.

If this sheet is included, you must provide photocopies of acceptable identification or complete the Vouching at Voter Registration form on the reverse side. Include the photocopies or completed form in Return Envelope C.

Please see the Vote-by-Mail ID Requirements sheet for additional information.

Include copies of acceptable forms of identification.

Provide photocopies of your ID as specified on the Vote-by-Mail ID Requirements sheet. You may need to provide copies of either one or two pieces, depending on the type of ID. Please see the sheet for more information on ID requirements. Place the copies inside Return Envelope C.

If you do not have ID

Complete the Vouching at Voter Registration form on the reverse side of the Vote-by-Mail ID Requirements sheet. See the vouching section on this sheet for details. Place the completed form in Return Envelope C.

Key dates

Elections BC must receive your vote-by-mail package by 8 p.m. (Pacific time) on Saturday, October 24, 2020. Return your package as soon as possible to make sure it is received by the deadline.

Candidate nominations close on Friday, October 2, 2020.

Important reminders

Vote-by-mail package

- Your vote-by-mail package has your name and address on it.
- You cannot use someone else’s vote-by-mail package.
- If your name or address has changed from what is printed on your Certification Envelope B, contact us.
- You can only vote once.
- You can request a replacement package if you spoil your ballot, or lose or damage your package. If you request a replacement package, you must destroy the original package and use the replacement to vote when it arrives.

Ballot

- Your voting package contains either an ordinary ballot or a write-in ballot. Read the instructions on the other side of this sheet for how to complete your ballot.

Translated information

- Translated information is available at elections.bc.ca.
- You can also be assisted by a translator to complete this vote-by-mail package. Read the instructions on the other side of this sheet for more information about getting help completing this package.
COMPLETING YOUR BALLOT

Before you begin, read all of these instructions in full. Ensure you are eligible to vote and your Certification Envelope B has your name on it. If it doesn’t, contact Elections BC. If you need to register to vote or update your information, read the voter registration section on the other side of this sheet.

If you requested your vote-by-mail package before candidate nominations closed, you will have a write-in ballot.

Follow the instructions at the top of your ballot. Print the name of the candidate or political party of your choice clearly in the white box on the ballot. Do not write anything else on your ballot.

1

OR

If you requested your vote-by-mail package after candidate nominations closed, you will have an ordinary ballot.

Mark your ballot with an X or a ✓ in the circle next to the candidate of your choice. Do not write anything else on your ballot.

If you make a mistake or have questions about how to mark your ballot, call Elections BC at 1-800-661-8683.

2

- Refold your ballot and put it in Secrecy Sleeve A.
- Put Secrecy Sleeve A with your marked ballot in it into Certification Envelope B.
- Seal Certification Envelope B.

RETURNING YOUR BALLOT TO ELECTIONS BC

Complete Certification Envelope B. Read the declaration and sign in the space provided to confirm you are eligible to vote and have not already voted in this election.

You are eligible to vote if you are a Canadian citizen, 18 or older on October 24, 2020, and a resident of British Columbia for at least six months immediately before October 24, 2020.

If your name or address has been entered incorrectly or needs to be updated, please contact Elections BC at 1-800-661-8683.

1

Enter your date of birth in the space provided to confirm your identity. Make sure you fill in your date of birth, not today’s date.

You must provide your date of birth and signature or your ballot will not be counted.

2

Someone can help you to complete this package if you have a physical disability or difficulties with reading or writing, or if you need someone to translate. Individuals cannot assist more than one voter unless they are an election official or the voter is a family member.

If someone translates for you, they must print their name here.

If someone helps you to complete this envelope, they must print their name here and provide their signature at step 1 and your birthdate at step 2.

3

Put Certification Envelope B into Return Envelope C. Seal Return Envelope C and return it to Elections BC by mail or in person at any drop-off location.

4

- No postage is required if mailed in Canada.
- For a list of drop-off locations visit elections.bc.ca or call 1-800-661-8683.

Elections BC must receive your ballot by 8 p.m. (Pacific time) on Saturday, October 24, 2020. Mail your ballot soon to make sure we get it before the deadline.