

PROVINCIAL CANDIDATE NOMINATION APPLICATION - 320 INFORMATION SHEET

How to become a candidate

Review this page carefully and see the reverse side for information on how to file your nomination once complete.

To become a candidate you must:

- meet all of the qualifications (see below);
- file a complete nomination with Elections BC;
- be issued a Certificate of Candidacy from Elections BC.

To qualify for nomination as a candidate you must:

- be a Canadian citizen;
- be 18 years of age or older, or if an election is in progress, be 18 years of age on General Voting Day for the election;
- have been a resident of British Columbia for at least 6 months immediately before you become a candidate;
- not be disqualified by the Election Act, or any other enactment from voting in an election or from being nomination for, being elected to or holding office as a Member of the Legislative Assembly, or otherwise disqualified by law; and,
- not be nominated as a candidate in any other electoral district in British Columbia.

A complete nomination must be filed by 1 p.m. (Pacific time) on the 7th day after an election is called and include:

- Provincial Candidate Nomination Application
- Appointment of Auditor (321)
- Appointment of Financial Agent (325)
- $250 deposit (cash, certified cheque, money order or travellers cheque payable to the Minister of Finance)
- Statement of Disclosure

You do not become a candidate until a complete nomination has been submitted, accepted and a Certificate of Candidacy has been issued.

Once filed, your nomination documents are available to the public. You may request to keep some of your information private.

Changes to nomination documents after filing

You may amend matters of fact that have changed since the time of filing by notifying the Chief Electoral Officer or District Electoral Officer in writing.

Nominators

Your nomination requires the signed declarations of 75 nominators from the electoral district where you are seeking election. It is advisable to have more than 75 nominators to ensure that enough valid signatures are obtained. Pages to collect signatures of nominators are included in this booklet.

Nominators do not have to be registered voters. However, it is strongly recommended to have registered voters sign your nomination booklet to ensure the nominators meet the qualifications.

To be a nominator, an individual must:

- be a Canadian citizen;
- be at least 18 years of age, or if an election is in progress, be 18 years of age or more on General Voting Day for the election;
- be a resident of the electoral district;
- have been a resident of B.C. for the immediately preceding six months; and
- not be disqualified from voting.

Nominators may only nominate one individual in an election. Nominators must provide their residential address. Mailing addresses are NOT acceptable, and may invalidate your nomination.

How to file your nomination

There are two methods of filing nominations. There are differences in timings for each filing method, depending on whether the election is scheduled or non-scheduled (e.g. a by-election).

All nominations must be filed by 1 p.m. (Pacific time) on the 7th day after an election is called.

The required items that must be submitted are the same for both methods of filing.

File with the Chief Electoral Officer

WHEN*:

For a scheduled (fixed date) general election, the Chief Electoral Officer must receive your nomination any time before 4:30 p.m. (Pacific time) on the day before the election is called.

For a by-election or unscheduled general election, the Chief Electoral Officer must receive your nomination any time before 4:30 p.m. (Pacific time) on the 2nd day after the election is called.

WHERE:

Elections BC headquarters

Location: 100 – 1112 Fort Street Victoria, BC V8V 3K8

Mailing address: PO Box 9275, Stn Prov Govt Victoria, BC V8W 9J6

HOW:

In person, by mail or dropped off at a Service BC centre for forwarding to Elections BC.

If sent by mail or dropped off at a Service BC centre you must ensure there is sufficient time for the nomination to be received by the Chief Electoral Officer before the deadline. A postmark will not be considered as proof of delivery by the deadline.

If your nomination package is submitted and accepted before an election is called you will receive your Certificate of Candidacy and become a candidate after the election is called.

Filing your nomination with the Chief Electoral Officer will allow you access to the voters list and the ability to issue tax receipts earlier than if you file with the District Electoral Officer.

OR

File with the District Electoral Officer

WHEN*:

For a scheduled (fixed date) general election, file with the District Electoral Officer from the time the election is called until 1 p.m. (Pacific time) on the 7th day after the election is called.

For a by-election or unscheduled general election, file with the District Electoral Officer from 9 a.m. (Pacific time) on the 3rd day after the election is called until 1 p.m. (Pacific time) on the 7th day after the election is called.

WHERE:

District electoral office in the electoral district in which you are seeking election. District electoral office locations are listed on the Elections BC webpage when the election is called.

HOW:

In person. You may assign a representative to deliver the documents on your behalf.

If you submit your nomination package to the District Electoral Officer you will be issued your Certificate of Candidacy and become a candidate as soon as possible after your package has been accepted.

* If a filing deadline falls on a weekend or holiday, the next day that is not a weekend or holiday will apply.

If your nomination is incomplete at the end of the filing period you choose, the documents will not be returned and the deposit is forfeited.

PROVINCIAL CANDIDATE NOMINATION APPLICATION - 320
INSTRUCTIONS

What is your full (legal) name?	1	Prefixes such as Mr., Ms., Dr., etc., and suffixes such as titles, degrees, etc., cannot be included as part of your name.
What name do you want on the ballot?	2	Ballot name CAN include nicknames and / or abbreviations, e.g. if Allan William Peter Smith usually goes by Bill Smith, this name may be used on the ballot.  Ballot name CANNOT include any indication that a candidate is holding or has held an elected office, a candidate's occupation, or an indication of a title, honour, degree or other decoration received or held by the candidate. For example, if the candidate is a doctor, "Doc" cannot be used on the ballot.
Where are you seeking election?	3	You do not have to be a resident of the electoral district where you are seeking election.
Where do you live?	4	Your residential address.  If you are acting as your own financial agent (as indicated in Part A on form 325 – Appointment of Financial Agent) and wish to keep your residential address private, you must provide an address available to the public in section 6 below.
How can we contact you?	5	You must provide at least one phone number. This phone number must be valid both during and after the election. If you are acting as your own Financial Agent you must provide a phone number that will be made available to the public.  To ensure we can effectively contact you we ask you to provide an email address.
What is your postal address?	6	Your postal address can be your residential address, or you may provide a different address where you receive mail. This address must be valid both during and after the election.  Documents delivered to your postal address are legally considered delivered or personally served to you [ Election Act s. 54(3)(1) and 68].  If you are acting as your own financial agent your postal address and phone number will be published on Elections BC's website and in Elections BC public advertising.
What is your political affiliation?	7	If you represent a registered political party, print the party name.  In order to have party affiliation noted on the ballot, the party must file an endorsement with the Chief Electoral Officer or the District Electoral Officer.  The party name will appear on the ballot as indicated on the political party's registration form.  OR  If you are independent, check the box and complete the signed declaration.  Individuals who represent unregistered political parties may not appear as INDEPENDENT on the ballot. In order to have INDEPENDENT on the ballot you must complete a signed statement as to your independent status.  If you are unaffiliated or represent an unregistered political party leave this section blank.
Do you want access to the Voters List and Street Index?	8	Read this section carefully. If you request access to the Voters List and Street Index you may use the Privacy Policy Template for Candidates (00154) included or develop and submit your own privacy policy that meets the Privacy Policy Acceptance Criteria (00158) available on the Elections BC website.
Your Signature	9	You must make a signed declaration that you:  1. meet all of the qualifications for nomination as a candidate (see Provincial Candidate Nomination Application Instruction Sheet for a complete listing of all qualifications); 2. consent your nomination; and, 3. will accept documents delivered to or served on you at your identified postal address and that you can be contacted at your primary telephone number.  WARNING: Signing a false statement is a serious offence and is subject to significant penalties [s. 266]

1. Scope of policy

To whom this policy applies

This policy applies to the signatory indicated on page four and all individuals or entities representing or working for them on a paid or unpaid basis and who may have access to Personal Information. ("Recipient of Personal Information")

To what this policy applies

This policy applies to Personal Information disclosed by Elections BC to the Recipient of Personal Information under the Election Act. ("Personal Information")

2. Restrictions on use

All Recipients of Personal Information must comply with this privacy policy, the Electoral Purpose for Access to and Use of Personal Information Regulation, and the requirements under section 275 of the Election Act to:

- only use the Personal Information for the purposes of the Election Act and provincial electoral purposes, and
- not use the Personal Information for commercial purposes.

Electoral purposes includes communicating with voters, including soliciting for campaign support and political contributions, and recruiting party members.

Recipients of Personal Information must not disclose Personal Information to any individual or entity to whom this policy does not apply.

3. Responsibilities

Recipients of Personal Information are responsible for the security and integrity of Personal Information and shall safeguard such Personal Information against accidental or unauthorized access, disclosure, use, modification and disposal.

4. Security

All individuals or entities with access to, or a copy of, Personal Information must take reasonable precautions to protect the security and confidentiality of the Personal Information.

Reasonable precautions include the following:

- Administrative measures: procedures to protect the privacy and security of Personal Information, staff training on privacy, limiting access to information to a “need to know” basis and the reliability of individuals having access to the Personal Information, and designating a person who will be responsible for implementing privacy safeguards.
- Technical measures: passwords, audit trails, encryption, firewalls and other technical security safeguards to minimize the risk of unauthorized individuals accessing Personal Information.
- Physical measures: restrict access to areas where Personal Information is stored.

5. Disposition of personal information

All recipients of Personal Information must securely dispose of, or recover and return to Elections BC, all of the Personal Information when no longer required for the purposes for which it was disclosed. Paper copies of records should be shredded and electronic copies should be destroyed. The following information must be tracked and retained to document the disposal of Personal Information:

- The date the Personal Information was destroyed or returned to Elections BC.
- The method by which the Personal Information was destroyed or returned to Elections BC.
- The name of the individual who destroyed the Personal Information or returned it to Elections BC.

6. Tracking of distribution

If the signatory provides any other individual or entity representing or working for them, on a paid or unpaid basis, with access to, or a copy of, Personal Information, the following information must be tracked and retained:

- The date of provision of access, or distribution.
- Who the Personal Information was provided to.
- What Personal Information was provided (e.g. list of voters for XXX electoral district, nomination documents, etc.).

- How the Personal Information was provided (e.g. access to database, provision of electronic copy of record, provision of paper copy of record, etc.).
- Confirmation that the individual or entity has read this policy and agrees to be bound by it.
- Confirmation of the date the Personal Information is returned or destroyed.

7. Loss or theft of information or unauthorized access

In the case of loss or theft of, or unauthorized access to, Personal Information, the following procedures must be followed:

- The breach should be contained and the source of the breach identified.
- The loss, theft or unauthorized access must be reported to the Chief Electoral Officer and the Information and Privacy Commissioner. Affected individuals must also be notified if certain risk factors are present<sup>2</sup>.
- Any Personal Information lost must be retrieved, if possible.
- The circumstances that led to the incident must be documented.
- Internal policies, processes and procedures must be reviewed to prevent future incidents.

8. Compliance audits

Elections BC may conduct a compliance audit of any individual or entity to whom this policy applies, whereby it may inspect and review the policies, procedures and practices that relate to the Personal Information. This includes documents that must be retained under this policy.

9. Duration and termination

This privacy policy comes into effect when it is accepted by Elections BC and shall remain in effect until the Writs of Election are issued for the next provincial general election, or this policy is superseded by a subsequent privacy policy.

I, the undersigned, hereby declare that:

- I understand and will abide by this privacy policy as submitted, and
- The Election Act provides significant penalties for making a false or misleading statement or for improper use of personal information.
