A subsequent disclosure report must be filed within 14 days if a third party sponsor receives one or more sponsorship contributions from a contributor with a total value greater than $250 since the most recent general election that have not been disclosed in either an initial disclosure report or a previous subsequent disclosure report.

A third party sponsor may be required to file multiple subsequent disclosure reports to ensure all contributors who have made total contributions greater than $250 since the last general election are disclosed within 14 days.

A subsequent disclosure report must be submitted in conjunction with the following form:

Sponsorship Contributions with a Total Value Greater than $250      Form S-A(b)     

I, the undersigned, declare that:

(a) this report and appropriate forms have been prepared in accordance with the Election Act; and

(b) to the best of my knowledge, information and belief, all the information contained in this report is complete and accurate.

I am aware that additional subsequent disclosure reports must be filed if any contributors give more than $250 in total sponsorship contributions.
