

CAMPAIGN FINANCING ARRANGEMENT INFORMATION SHEET

All candidates endorsed by an elector organization must have a campaign financing arrangement with their elector organization.

Elector organizations are not allowed to incur campaign period expenses unless they share a candidate's expense limit under a campaign financing arrangement.

A Campaign Financing Arrangement must be:

- Entered into on the regulated form before the start of the campaign period.
- Delivered to the applicable financial agent's service address as soon as practicable.
- Signed by the candidate, the candidate's financial agent (if applicable) and the elector organization's financial agent.
- Submitted to Elections BC as soon as practicable AND again with the candidate's disclosure statement.

Note: an endorsed candidate can make all, some or none of their expense limit available to their elector organization to spend on their campaign.

Campaign financing arrangements may be amended or terminated.
