

KNOW THE ADVERTISING RULES

2017 PRINCE GEORGE FOUR SEASONS LEISURE POOL AND FIRE HALL #1 REPLACEMENT NON-ELECTION ASSENT VOTING ADVERTISING

Non-election assent voting advertising is any advertising during a non-election assent voting proceedings period that promotes or opposes, directly or indirectly, a particular outcome for the vote.

Non-election assent voting is taking place in the City of Prince George. If you advertise from September 28 to October 28, 2017, during the 2017 Prince George Four Seasons Leisure Pool and Fire Hall #1 Replacement Non-election Assent Voting, you have rules to follow under the Local Elections Campaign Financing Act:

- You must register with Elections BC as a non-election assent voting advertising sponsor before conducting any advertising.
- You must include your name and contact information on all advertising.
- You must file a disclosure statement with Elections BC by January 26, 2018

To learn more about the rules and to download registration forms and the Guide for Local Non-election Assent Voting Advertising Sponsors in B.C., visit elections.bc.ca/lecf.

The local government must include its name and contact information on any non-election assent voting advertising it conducts during this event. However, local governments are not required to register or to file a disclosure statement.

Media outlets cannot publish or transmit non-election assent voting advertising on General Voting Day, Saturday, October 28, 2017.
